DESIGN NOTES

New this month...

"Build your colour confidence by introducing an accent colour to your kitchen. Smeg's new small appliance collection is a great place to start."

SOPHIE BAYLIS Deputy Editor

1 The Art Deco movement in Sweden served as inspiration for Sandberg's Grace wallpaper collection. KBB's favourite is the understated Otto check, £77 per roll. 0800 731 9622 or www.sandbergab.se/en

2 Alain Gilles worked in the financial world before he went back to school to study industrial design. His Gap table for Bonaldo is priced £3860 from Go Modern. 020 7731 9540 or www.gomodern.co.uk

3 Smeg has lent its signature retro styling to a collection of small appliances in a range of pretty pastel colours. Expect to pay around £79 for this two-slice toaster from John Lewis. 0845 604 9049 or www.johnlewis.com

4 Royal Crown Derby's latest tableware collection is perfectly timed to chime with the Steampunk trend. Featuring an interlocking cog and wheel motif, the Steampunk Post Meridiam Plate, 27cm, is £65. 01332 712833 or www.royalcrownderby.co.uk

5 If your kitchen diner is crying out for a stylish sideboard stop your search at Divine, lovingly crafted in walnut and brass by Swiss studio Dyer-Smith Frey and priced £5330. www.dyersmith-frey.com
